GRANDPARENTS' DAY
ST. JOHN REGIONAL SCHOOL
THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 29, 2017

St. John Regional School will host its annual Grandparents' Day on Thursday, September 28 beginning in the Church at 1 p.m. We will have a short prayer service in Church followed by an opportunity for students and their grandparents to visit classrooms in grades Pre-K through 5. Students in grades 6-8 will visit with grandparents in the Parish Activity Center. Students in grades 6-8 may visit the classrooms in Barry Hall with their grandparents. Grandparents who have students in both buildings may visit both places. Light refreshments will be served.

Students who do not have a grandparent available may invite an aunt, uncle, Godparent or special adult friend.

Students may be dismissed with the grandparents who will need to sign them out.

This day is chosen because there are no classes on Friday, September 29.

SJRS families are responsible for inviting grandparents for this event. No RSVP is necessary.

Talking to Teens About Suicide

Is your teenager struggling with suicidal thoughts?
Do you know the signs and symptoms of suicidal behavior?
How do you talk to a teenager or young adult about suicide?
When should you get expert help?

Parents and all who work with teens and young adults are welcome.

In response to reports of a rise in suicidal behavior and thinking among NH teens, the Diocese of Manchester and Catholic Charities New Hampshire will offer this program to increase awareness of teen suicide and provide guidance on how to respond. Rev. John J. Mahoney Jr., Director of Catholic Charities Counseling Services, will lead a team of CCNH counselors skilled in working with adolescents in presenting the program, which will include opportunities for questions. This is not a training program, but intended to improve awareness.
